

RappFLOW Riparian Site Evaluation Form (Page 1)
Preliminary Site Visit

RappFLOW Site ID Number:

RappFLOW Volunteer(s):

Date(s):

Basic Site Information:

Owner(s):

Address:

Phone/fax:

Email:

Tax Parcel(s):

River/Streams:

Bank Looking Downstream:(L, R, Both):

Approximate Stream Length (Feet):

GPS/coordinate Information as available (for instance, upstream end, downstream end, middle, landowner's home, etc.):

Summary of Suggested Actions:

I. Stream Bank

II. Riparian Area

III. Property Drainage

IV. Adjacent Areas

RappFLOW Riparian Site Evaluation Form (Page 2)
Preliminary Site Visit

I. Stream and Stream Bank Evaluation

Overall Condition (Excellent, Good, Fair, Poor):

Comments:

Suggested Next Steps:

II. Riparian Area

Note the condition of the area, especially Forest, Grassland, Exposed Soils, channels, or opportunities for direct runoff. Also note Invasive Plant Species as feasible:

Owner's viewpoint, plans, desires for the Riparian Area, such as recreational, streamside relaxation, picnics, pathways, and water views:

Potential actions for improvement and landowner's expression of level of participation:

Suggested Next Steps:

RappFLOW Riparian Site Evaluation Form (Page 3)
Preliminary Site Visit

III. Property Drainage Evaluation:

Note conditions and issues related to rooftop drainage, parking areas, lawn condition and drainage, ditches, swales, bare soils, drainage to/from adjacent properties.
Note potential sources of nutrients and other contaminants.

Primary opportunities for improvement:

Examples: Mowing higher, roof drainage control, swales (no-mow, mow real high, plantings), raingardens, graveled ditches, etc.

Suggested Next Steps:

RappFLOW Riparian Site Evaluation Form (Page 4)
Preliminary Site Visit

IV. Drainage Issues on adjacent properties (if applicable):

Include Adjacent property owners' names as available

Note if drainage issues and if draining to or from adjacent property